2. Safety Policy

It is the policy of this company to implement the Safety, Health & Welfare at work act 2005, the Safety, Health & Welfare at work (General Application) Regulations 2007 & the Safety, Health & Welfare at work (Construction) Regulations 2013 and all other relevant legislation. To ensure so far as is reasonable and practicable the safety, health, and welfare of all employees whilst at work, and to provide such information, training and supervision required for this purpose.

It is the policy of this company to protect, so far as is reasonably practicable, persons not employed by this company who may be affected by our activities.

All employees have the responsibility to co-operate with supervisors and managers, to achieve a healthy and safe work place, and to take reasonable care of themselves and others.

It is the policy of this company to consult all employees on matters of health and safety. Employees are hereby notified of the company policy and are expected to comply with their duties, to notify the company management of identified hazards in the work place.

The allocation of duties for safety matters and particular arrangements for implementing the policy are set out in this document.

The policy will be kept up to date particularly as the business changes in nature and size. To ensure this, the policy and the way in which it is operated, will be reviewed as required.

This statement is distributed to all contract managers and supervisors. It shall be available at locations where this company carries business.
